

Practicing Vascular Surgeons, Trainees And Junior Faculty

You can be a part of the VEITHsymposium too! The Fifth Annual VEITHsymposium/ISVS Poster Session (at the 38th Annual VEITHsymposium in New York), offers young vascular surgeons (including trainees and junior faculty) an opportunity to submit their research to be presented to a world-renowned panel of judges.

Rules of the poster session: Presenters MUST BE A MEMBER of the International Society for Vascular Surgery (ISVS). Abstracts will not be reviewed if membership cannot be verified. To become a member of the ISVS please visit <http://www.isvs.com/RegistrationForm.aspx> Trainees and junior faculty (within 5 years of completing their training) are invited to submit by e-mail, abstracts of their clinically relevant work for consideration at the VEITHsymposium Poster Session. Abstracts must be a maximum of 1 page in length (inclusive of title, authors, primary institution, corresponding author's e-mail address and cell phone number).

Abstracts will be selected by a distinguished panel of judges. The Poster Session viewing and formal judging will be announced in an upcoming VEITHsymposium E-newsletter). Judges will select the best posters based on a 3-minute oral presentation. The ISVS will sponsor cash prizes for 1st ($1,000), 2nd ($500), and 3rd ($250) place. Presenters will be notified at the symposium if they have been selected for an award and must be present in the Grand Ballroom (date and time to be announced) in order to receive their award.

It should be noted that neither the ISVS nor VEITHsymposium will reimburse for any costs incurred by participants of the Poster Session.

On the "subject" line of your e-mail please include:
"VEITHsymposium/ISVS 2011 Poster Session Abstract"

Deadline for abstract submission by e-mail is November 6, 2011.

No extensions or exceptions will be made. The corresponding author of those abstracts selected for presentation will be notified by e-mail and sent additional instructions for their posters by November 8, 2011.

Please submit your abstract to isvsvs2011@isvs.com
