WFVS Session at VEITHSymposium 2023

Moderators: Palma Shaw, MD; Wei Zhou, MD; and Enrico Ascher, MD

1:00 – 1:01 p.m.
Introduction: Palma Shaw, MD, WFVS Secretary-General

1:01 – 1:09 p.m.
Guidelines and Innovation: Does the One Exclude the Other?
Philippe Kolh, MD (ESVS)

1:10 – 1:18 p.m.
Branched TEVAR for Acute Aortic Pathologies and Trauma
Misty Humphries, MD (SVS)

1:19 – 1:27 p.m.
Genotypic Expression of Peripheral Pediatric Aneurysms: Case Series and Review of Literature
Prem Chand Gupta, MD (VSI)

1:28 – 1:36 p.m.
Saphenous Vein Ablation: A Word of Caution
Alberto Munoz, MD (ALCVA)

1:37 – 1:45 p.m.
Training in Vascular Surgical Procedures and the Role of Academic Societies
Nobuyoshi Azuma, MD (JSVS)

1:46 – 1:54 p.m.
Vascular Surgery Adds Value as an Enabling Specialty: The Australasian Perspective
Jason Chuen, MD (ANZSVS)

1:55 – 2:03 p.m.
Off Label Use of Iliac Limb for Abdominal Aortic Aneurysms in Indian Population with Small Aortas: A Necessary Risk or Evolving Indication?
Rahul Laxminarayan, MD (VSI)

2:04 – 2:12 p.m.
Hybrid Solutions for Aortic Arch Aneurysms
Nelson DeLuccia, MD (ALCVA)

2:13 – 2:21 p.m.
Personalized Prediction of Cardiovascular Progression in AAA and PAD Patients with the Use of AI: Introduction of the VASCUL-AID Project
Kakkhee Yeung, MD (ESVS)

2:22 – 2:30 p.m.
Collaborative Research: An Important Tool for Addressing the Burden of Vascular Disease Around the World
Max Wohlauer, MD (SVS)